

CopyForward permission for electronic contents

Bipin C. Desai

The document in electronic form, bearing a CopyForward permission, could be used for personal use and/or study, free of charge. Anyone could use it to derive updated versions. The derived version must be published under Copy Forward. All authors of the version used to derive the new version must be included in the updated version in the existing order, followed by name(s) of author(s) producing the derived work. Such derived version must be made available free of charge in electronic form under CopyForward. Any other means of reproduction requires that profit(income minus the actual production costs) should be shared with established charitable organizations for children. Readers who found this or any derived work useful are encouraged to also make a donation to their favourite children charity.

Make sure to choose a charity which has very modest administrative charges(NOT more than 20%) or some deserving children in your own community.
